

RED DEER HILL.

Small game was killed about two weeks ago. About an equal quantity of the different grades were shown, and although a much larger average than last year.

The entries around here, becoming abundant at the rapid increase of game and birds had a shooting match last week for the purpose of getting rid of some of these pests. Blackbirds and crows were also counted. The captain was J. Standfield and T. G. Galtier. A good days shooting was done and Capt. Standfield's squad won by 204 points. Another match will take place to-morrow.

A meeting was held in the school house on Wednesday of last week for purpose of taking into consideration the advisability of building a road from the Hill to Prince Albert. The meeting was well attended and it was unanimously resolved that a committee be formed and they choose the route and go on with the work.

TOWN COUNCIL.

The Town Council held a regular meeting on Monday evening last. His worship Mayor Bates presiding. The councilmen present were: McNeill, Knowles, Davis, Agnew and John Agnew.

CONVOCATIONS.

A communication was received from the secretary of the School Board asking for $750 for the current year.

The resignation of Mr. Stull, as clerk of the Town was laid on the table.

An application from Wm. Shipman for a day house was granted.

The accounts of the assessor, for $150, and from the School Board, for $750 for costs, were referred to the Finance Committee.

REPORTS.

Coun. Davis, Chairman of the Health and Relief Committee, reported that all arrangements had been made for the removal of Thos. Rice to his friends in Wisconsin and that the cost of passage would be about $75.

The Board of Works was instructed to fit on the road in the rear of the Town Hall for a lock-up.

BY-LAWS.

A by-law was introduced by Coun. Davis to empower the Corporation to raise the sum of $3,000 for the purchase of the Presbyterian Church and property but it never saw daylight as it was very rightly quashed on the first vote.

A by-law regulating the duties of the town constable was introduced and read a first and second time.

Couns. Agnew and Johnson were appointed a committee to wait upon the clerk re-signation.

The Council then adjourned.

COURT OF REVISION

The Court of Revision for the town was held in the Council Chamber on Wednesday evening last. The Court consisted of the Mayor, presiding, Couns. McNeill, Knowles and Agnew.

The appeals of Messrs. Clarke and Davison, of the H.R.Co., were sustained while several others were held over for decision.

The Court was adjourned till the 26th inst. and the time for receiving appeals was extended to Saturday, the 9th, owing to the great unpopularity in the assessment. The following is a comparison of the assessment of some of the buildings:—

J. M. Campbell's brick residence is down for $5,000, while Judge McGuire's, the finest residence in town, has only $3,500. Mr. McGregor's residence on Church St., $500, and a much smaller building occupied by the Rev. Mr. Howard, $800. Mr. Wm. Drain's house, occupied by Mr. Stull, $1,200, while the residence of the Rev. Mr. Campbell, a much superior building with out buildings is only $1,000, the latter residence is owned by Mr. W. B. Goodfellow. Mr. D. J. Campbell's small frame house, lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Clark, is assessed for $800 while Coun. Knowles' large cottage with attachments and directly opposite Mr. Campbell's is only down for $700.

"DECORATION DAY."

The years that have elapsed since the close of the civil war have served to obliterate all sectional feeling, and a united and prosperous nation joins in keeping green all the graves of its beloved dead. It is in this spirit that the publisher of the NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER has had written a thrilling and pathetic romance, peculiarly appropriate to this national holiday, entitled, "Faithful Lovers; or, His Grave Kept Green." In the same paper will also be found a weekly instalment of the "Life and Adventures of a Showman of P.T. Barnum," written by himself, and equally interesting to the young folks as well as heads of families. These are rare literary treats, and those of our readers who are not already enjoying them will do well to obtain No. 766 of the New York Family Story Paper of their newsdealer or send direct to the publisher, Munro's Publishing House, Nos. 24 and 26 Vandewater street, New York, and receive the paper four months for one dollar, postage free.

Mr. Markley, grandfather of Mrs. S. Brewster, died a few days ago at the ripe old age of 98 years. The deceased gentleman came to Prince Albert in 1883 and has been engaged in farming.
